

A decorative border surrounds the text. At the top is a golden eagle with spread wings. Two American flags are crossed behind the eagle. The flags are also part of a larger wreath-like structure that frames the text. At the bottom, there is a shield with the American flag design, flanked by more flags and decorative elements.

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing:
Land where my fathers died!
Land of the pilgrim's pride!
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring!

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees,
Sweet Freedom's song:
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble, free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templ'd bills:
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

Our fathers' God! to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With Freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King!
